How does it work?

Developed over 20 years, Gender Reconciliation synthesizes wisdom from the world’s spiritual traditions to create a rare forum that builds trust and compassionate communication through a unique combination of interactive activities, contemplative practices, and transformative group process. Gender Reconciliation has been successfully implemented in seven countries, and is widely perceived as a major breakthrough in transforming relations between women and men.

What is Gender Reconciliation?

Both women and men are afflicted by gender disharmony, and each needs the other for a true and complete healing. Gender Reconciliation brings women and men together to jointly transform gender relations, and begin the work of mutual healing and reconciliation between the sexes.

Who is it for?

People of all sexual orientations, faith traditions, age, race, cultures, and ethnicities are welcome.

FACILITATORS: William Keepin, Ph.D. and Rev. Cynthia Brix are co-directors of Gender Reconciliation International which has organized over 75 gatherings in eight countries.
